Melu,

Happy 33rd, my love.

I wanted to do something different this year — something that's just... us. So here it is: 33 wishes, one for each beautiful year you've been in this world, each one waiting for you to unlock.

You know, sometimes I wonder how I got so lucky. The way you care for everyone around you, how deeply you feel everything, how you make even the smallest moments feel special — that's just who you are. And I fall in love with that person over and over again.

You're my partner in everything — from lazy Sundays to spontaneous adventures, from quiet conversations to the most chaotic days. You make life better, Melu. You make me better.

So this book? It's my way of saying thank you. Thank you for being you, for choosing me, for filling our life with so much love and laughter. Each wish inside is a little promise — a date, a surprise, a moment I want to create just for you.

Connect the dots, scan the code, and let's make this year unforgettable.

I love you more than words can say.

Always yours,
Karthik
